

Pascale Dettwiller

Pascale Dettwiller is Associate Professor and Director at the Katherine Campus of the Rural Clinical School Campus of the Flinders University NT Medical Program, Katherine, Northern Territory. She holds a Doctor of Pharmacy from the School of Pharmacy, Joseph Fourier University, Grenoble (France) and several Bachelor and Diploma awards in Teaching, Business, Nutrition and Herbal Medicine. She has held Senior Clinical Pharmacist positions at governmental and non-governmental health organisations in New Caledonia, Tasmania and Victoria. Pascale has vast experience in teaching and mentoring of pharmacy, medical and nursing students in Tasmania, Victoria and Northern Territory, especially in rural medical schools. She is a member of 12 professional societies and has contributed to many practice manuals and to the development of advanced professional practice for pharmacists. Her major area of research is in medication management and safety, drug usage evaluation and education around medication and adherence and interdisciplinary education. Pascale Dettwiller's current role is to develop these community-campus partnerships and ensure appropriate feedback from the projects' outcomes is provided to the partners. She implemented the student-led clinics for allied health discipline starting with speech pathology in primary school. She is a relentless advocate for rural and regional integrated model and partnerships.
