

Ralph Hampson

Dr Ralph Hampson is the Head, Research and Evaluation at the Starlight Children's Foundation. He has more than 30 years' experience in health and community services and is an experienced clinician, supervisor, manager, policy maker, evaluator, researcher and academic. In his role at Starlight he is responsible for undertaking and developing evaluations and research projects in partnership with the National Starlight team.