

Korin Lesh

Korin Lesh is a very experienced educator having taught in Tokyo, Sydney, Denver, Anchorage and Darwin. Korin's passion is for arts education in primary schools and its possibilities for community engagement and capacity building. Since returning to Darwin in 2006 she has vested much energy and expertise into forging links between schools, the community and art programs. She won a national NEITA (National Excellence in Teaching Awards) award in 2013 for her inspirational art program at Millner Primary. Korin is a classroom teacher, and the President of the Art Educators of the NT.