

Tania Lieman

Tania Lieman is an actor, director and writer who has had the opportunity of working in the area of disability arts for over 15 years. In that time she has created a number of full length productions and ran workshops classes in multi art forms with mixed ability groups.