

Jane Tonkin

Jane Tonkin has 25 years' experience in the arts in the areas of festival development, project management, venue management and event producing. Jane has a BA and a Grad.Dip. in Arts and Entertainment Management and specialises in developing projects (including assembling creative teams and seeking appropriate resources), and providing support to artists. After extensive involvement with Corrugated Iron in previous years at board level, Jane took up the position of Executive Producer at Corrugated Iron in 2006.