AusMAT: Challenging practice in an austere environment post sudden onset disasters
Innovate, collaborate and coordinate to deliver Australia’s health emergency and medical response capability.
AusMAT Field Hospital – EMT Type 1

EMT 1 - Fixed

OR

EMT 1 - Mobile
AusMat Staffing

EMT 1 - Fixed
- Advanced TL = 1
- Medical = 5
- Nursing = 9
- Para = 2
- Radiology = 1
- Pharmacy = 1
- Log = 5

TEAM TOTAL = 24

EMT 1 – Mobile
- Dependant on what type of response:
  - Aero-medical
  - Primary Care

TEAM TOTAL = Variable staffing (4-6).

EMT 2
- Advanced TL = 1
- Medical = 10
- Nursing = 27
- Para = 2
- Radiology = 1
- Pharmacy = 1
- Allied Health = 1
- Lab tech = 1
- Log = 5

TEAM TOTAL = 50
AusMAT Deployments

OPERATION PAKISTAN ASSIST II - 2010

ENDEMIC TRACHOMA - 2013

DENGUE FEVER OUTBREAK - 2013
AusMAT Deployments

OPERATION PHILIPPINES ASSIST - 2013

OPERATION PACIFIC ASSIST - 2015

NEPAL - 2015

FIJI - 2016
AusMAT Staff

AusMATeer’s must be experienced, current in practice and willing to be flexible, adaptable and resourceful.

AusMAT courses and training prepares you for working within an austere environment in a disaster setting.
AusMAT - Staff
AusMAT Staff
AusMAT Living Conditions

- Weather
- Noisy
- Austere
- Tiredness
- Personalities
- Sickness
AusMAT engages with the local country to provide staff to work with our team.
Working with International Staff
Interested in becoming an AusMAT volunteer?
So if you want to explore and challenge the boundaries of your clinical practise in an austere environment... think AusMAT!
References

Amanda Gill
National Critical Care & Trauma Response Centre (NCCTRC)
Email: amanda.gill@nt.gov.au
PH: 08 89441349
Questions