Carl Cooper

Carl Cooper was born in Tasmania and now teaches pharmacy students at Charles Sturt University, Wagga Wagga. Carl has had a varied and interesting work/life mix, including secondary teaching, singing performances, practising as a community and review pharmacist, QUMAX support pharmacist in western NSW, and a community pharmacy proprietor.

His qualifications include: BA (Music Ed), TCAE, 1980; Tasmanian Teaching Certificate, 1982; Master of Education, University of Canberra, 1996; Graduate Diploma of Music, ANU, 1999; Bachelor of Pharmacy, CSU, 2003; Registered Pharmacist, NSW, 2005; and Accredited Pharmacist, 2009.

Being an experienced teacher, Carl retrained as a pharmacist, graduating from CSU in 2003.

Mandy and Carl Cooper presented a paper at the 7th National Rural Health Conference in Hobart, 2003, entitled ‘The development and implementation of a full webster packing service in rural NSW’, and also Carl performed ‘Bring him home’ from Les Miserables at the request of Julie McCrossin at the 9th National Rural Health Conference in Albury, 2007.