

Kylie Stothers

Kylie Stothers is a mother of two children, she is a Jawoyn woman who was born and raised in Katherine, NT. Kylie comes from a large extended family with strong ties in Katherine and surrounding communities. Kylie is a social worker and has worked throughout the Northern Territory for over 17 years. Kylie currently works for the Centre for Remote and Flinders NT at the Katherine site. Kylie's interest areas are in child and maternal health, working with families, health promotion, child protection and health workforce issues. Kylie is passionate about education and issues that relate to remote and rural Australia.