

Lyn Mayne

Dr Lyn Mayne graduated from Adelaide University (1984), and has successfully completed Professional Certificate in Management, and Clinical Team Leadership program. After 10 years in her own private practices, Dr Mayne moved to Broken Hill to be the sole dentist for the Royal Flying Doctor Service. During her time with the RFDS South Eastern Section, Dr Mayne has been an integral part in the expansion of the dental service, which now operates from both Broken Hill and Dubbo bases, providing much needed dental services to rural and remote areas of NSW. She has mentored many dental students from Australian universities, as well as students from overseas, and is a Clinical Associate at the University of Sydney and an Honorary Lecturer at the University of Adelaide. Dr Mayne has been an active member of the Australian Dental Association, both at State and Federal level.
