

Deidre Rennick

Deidre Rennick is a registered nurse with experience across a range of health care sectors including public, private, acute, community and higher education sectors. She is currently the Executive Manager, Primary Care at Grampians Medicare Local. The Grampians Medicare Local After Hours System was developed from a smaller pilot program which had been operating in Western Victoria for almost 12 years.