

Asman Rory

Asman Rory is a traditional Garawa and Gudanji man from the Gulf of Carpentaria, and a Remote Alcohol & Other Drugs Worker with the Remote AOD Workforce in Borroloola for 6 years. Asman has learnt from his Elders and lives what has been practised by his ancestors, passing onto his children and family the lore/law, ceremony, hunting his grandparents taught him. Asman uses his ancestral knowledge to help young people in Borroloola understand and learn about the effects of alcohol and other drugs and its consequences as part of his life and role as a Remote AOD Worker.
