

Adrian Schoo

Adrian Schoo is professor in rural allied health education at Flinders University. Before moving into clinical education Adrian was physiotherapy discipline leader at La Trobe University's Rural Health School and, prior to that, deputy director of the Greater Green Triangle University Department of Rural Health. He established a state-wide continuing education program for allied professionals in Victoria, with online access in other Australian jurisdictions. Professor Schoo played an instrumental role in establishing a solid foundation for physiotherapy at Flinders University to underpin the musculoskeletal and inter-professional practice curriculum and clinical placement partnerships. His work informs policymakers, educators and health professionals. Research interests include continuing education, allied health workforce development and health service enhancement, particularly in the area of chronic disease.
