Expand the health research capacity of rural Australia

28% of the population

28% of the research funds

The National Rural Health Alliance is asking an incoming Government to commit to:

- creating a rural health focus for health research as a core component (a Mission) of the Medical Research Future Fund (MRFF)
- setting a performance benchmark for the MRFF to reflect this commitment
- strengthening the capacity of rurally based researchers to undertake research locally

www.ruralhealth.org.au/election19 / #Vote1RuralHealth